How to make a claim for a revised decision

Authority considering the claim for a revised decision

If you are unhappy with the decision you received you may submit a claim for a revised decision to the Finnish Transport and Communications Agency (hereafter the Agency). You may submit it by mail, electronic means or messenger.

Time limit

The claim for a revised decision shall be submitted within 30 days of notice of the decision, the day of notice excluded. If the final day is a public holiday, Saturday, Sunday, Independence Day, 1 May, Christmas Eve or Midsummer's Eve, the time limit is extended to the next working day.

The day of notice is calculated as follows:

- If the decision has been mailed as an ordinary letter, the service of the decision is considered effected within seven days from the posting date, unless otherwise proven.
- If the decision has been sent by mail in return for an acknowledgement of receipt, the date of notice is shown in the receipt. The acknowledgement of receipt must be enclosed with the documents submitted to the Agency.
- If the decision has been sent as a standard electronic message, the service is considered effected, unless otherwise proven, on the third day after the message has been sent.
- If the decision has been sent as a verifiable electronic message, the service is considered effected once it has been retrieved from the server designated by the Agency.
- If the decision has been sent by email under section 12 of the Act on Electronic Communication Services (917/2014), the service is considered effected once you have sent a confirmation email to the Agency that the message has been read. If, according to law, the document does not have to be served verifiably, service is considered effected on the third day after the message has been sent, unless otherwise proven.
- If the decision has been sent as a general notification, service is considered effected on the seventh day after the publication of the notification in the Official Gazette.
- If the decision has been sent using substitute service, service is considered effected on the third day after the day indicated in the acknowledgment of receipt.

The claim shall be lodged in good time in order to arrive at the registry of the Agency before the end of office hours on the last day of the time limit. It is always the responsibility of the claimant to lodge the claim in due time.

Form and contents of the claim

The claim for a revised decision shall be lodged in writing. The document shall indicate:

- your name and domicile, and your contact address and telephone number;
- the decision challenged;

- the parts of the decision that are challenged and the amendments demanded to it;
- the grounds on which the claim is based.

You may write the claim yourself or ask your legal representative to do so on your behalf. You or your legal representative shall sign the document. If your legal representative exercises your right of action, his/her name and domicile shall also be indicated on the claim. A claim submitted by electronic means need not be supplemented by a signature, if the claim contains details on the sender and the authenticity and integrity of the document is not in doubt. Provisions on electronic signatures are given in Act 617/2009.

Pursuant to section 9 in the Act on Electronic Services and Communication in the Public Sector (13/2003), the written form required in the lodging of a matter is met by an electronic document delivered to the authorities.

Appendices required

The following shall be appended to the claim:

- the decision challenged, in the original or as a copy;
- a certificate on the date of notice of the decision or other evidence on the date when the appeal period began to run;
- the documents on which you rely in support of your demand, unless already delivered to the Agency;
- your legal representative's power of attorney, unless he/she is a lawyer, a public legal aid attorney or a licensed attorney.

If an electronic document sent to a public authority contains details of the legal representative's entitlement, the legal representative need not submit a power of attorney. Nevertheless, the authority may require a power of attorney to be submitted, if there are grounds for questioning the entitlement or the extent of the entitlement.
